

DLM Geoforum workshop “Preservation of Digital Geospatial Records, the Cornerstone of Europe’s Digital Decade”

Venue: National Archives of Belgium, Rue de Ruysbroeck 2, 1000 Brussels

Time: Tuesday, 28th May 2024, 14:00-16:10 CET (parallel to DLM Forum Members’ meeting session 6)

All presentations last 20 minutes, followed by a 5-minute Q&A session.

Time	Topics & Speakers
14:00-14:05	Introduction , Gregor Završnik
14:05-14:15	EC eArchiving Initiative , Fulgencio Sanmartín, EC
14:15-14:40	What is new in CITS geospatial specifications and how you can contribute , Gregor Završnik, Geoarh, Slovenia & Anita Graser, AIT Austrian Institute of Technology
14:40-15:05	Geospatial heritage digitization project in Latvian Geospatial Information Agency , Ivars Bergmanis & Sanita Krūmina, Latvian Geospatial Information Agency
15:05-15:30	Preservation of digital geospatial records: perspectives on future requirements in terms of service-oriented architectures and AI , Markus Jobst, Bundesamt für Eich- und Vermessungswesen, Austria
15:30-15:55	Universal Ontology of Geographic Space – a tool for machine-understandable records , Dr. Marjan Čeh, University of Ljubljana
15:55-16:10	Discussion - Conclusion

NB! The DLM Geoforum workshop will be a parallel session to the DLM Forum members’ meeting. DLM Forum members who have registered for the members’ meeting as onsite attendees do not need to make separate registration for geoforum onsite attendance; it will be provided as an alternative to the main programme. However, if you wish to attend the Geoforum online, please register here.