

DLM Forum Triennial Meeting 2026 Social Programme

Alongside the DLM Forum Triennial Meeting in Dublin, we are pleased to offer participants the opportunity to visit some of the city's cultural and heritage institutions.

These visits are free of charge for conference participants, but advance registration is required due to limited availability. Registration links will be sent directly to all conference onsite participants.

Monday, 2 November 2026

Guided Tour of the National Gallery of Ireland Archives

Behind the scenes viewing of highlights from the archive and special collections at the National Gallery of Ireland as well as an introduction to recent digital work.

Start: 14:30 | Duration: approximately 60-90 minutes

Location: National Gallery of Ireland, Merrion Square West, Dublin 2. NB! Meet at the reception desk area at the Merrion Square entrance to the National Gallery (please note there are two entrances)

Maximum number of participants: 15

Thursday, 5 November 2026

Guided Tour of the National Library of Ireland

Guided tour of the Exhibition on the Life and Works of William Butler Yeats (1865-1939), one of the greatest writers of the 20th century and a significant influence on modern Irish cultural identity. The exhibition draws on items from the National Library of Ireland's Yeats Collection, the largest collection of Yeats material in the world.

Start: 13:00 | Duration: approximately 60 minutes

Location: National Library of Ireland, Kildare Street, Dublin 2. Meet at Front Hall of the main Library Building, entrance on Kildare Street, Dublin D02 P638

Maximum number of participants: 15

Guided Tour of the Old Library Redevelopment Project, Trinity College Dublin

Guided tour of the Old Library Redevelopment Project, including work to conserve the Old Library and its extensive research collection, including the Book of Kells.

Further information on Trinity College Dublin and the Old Library Project is available here.

Start: 13:30 | Duration: approximately 60 minutes

Location: Old Library entrance, Trinity College Dublin, College Green, Dublin 2, Ireland.

Maximum number of participants: 16

Visit to the Guinness Storehouse and Archives

Participants will be welcomed by a member of the Guinness Archives Team before exploring the Guinness Storehouse on a self-guided tour.

The visit includes a complimentary pint of Guinness, Guinness 0.0 or a soft drink in the Gravity Bar.

Start: 15:00 (self-guided)

Visitors will be met by a member of the Guinness Archives Team before embarking on a self-guided tour of the Storehouse. The visit will include a complimentary pint of Guinness / Guinness 0.0 or a soft drink in the Gravity Bar.

Location: Meet at reception in the Guinness Storehouse, St. James's Gate, Dublin 8, D08 VF8H, Ireland.

Further information on the Guinness Storehouse and Archive is available here.

Booking reference 904605644

Maximum number of participants: 20